Word Study for --- PURIM

A close-up photograph of several vibrant purple flowers with yellow stamens, set against a background of blurred green foliage. The text is overlaid on the image in a bold, white, sans-serif font.

Est 09:26 Wherefore they called these days Purim after the name of Pur. Therefore for all the words of this letter, and [of that] which they had seen concerning this matter, and which had come unto them,

Est 09:28 And [that] these days [should be] remembered and kept throughout every generation, every family, every province, and every city; and [that] these days of Purim should not fail from among the Jews, nor the memorial of them perish from their seed.

Est 09:29 Then Esther the queen, the daughter of Abihail, and Mordecai the Jew, wrote with all authority, to confirm this second letter of Purim.

Est 09:31 To confirm these days of Purim in their times (appointed), according as Mordecai the Jew and Esther the queen had enjoined them, and as they had decreed for themselves and for their seed, the matters of the fastings and their cry.

A scenic photograph of a waterfall cascading down a rocky cliff. The water is white and frothy as it falls, surrounded by lush green vegetation and tall grasses. The background is slightly hazy, suggesting a misty or overcast day. The overall tone is natural and serene.

Est 09:32 And the decree of Esther confirmed these matters of Purim; and it was written in the book.
