Word Study for --- PILOTS

An aerial photograph capturing a massive, curling wave as it breaks onto a sandy beach. The wave's face is a vibrant greenish-blue, contrasting sharply with the white, foamy spray at its base. The beach below is a light tan color, appearing wet and textured where the wave has receded. In the distance, a small, dark silhouette of a coastal town or group of buildings is visible along the horizon under a clear blue sky.
