Word Study for --- THREATENED

Act 04:21 So when they had further threatened them, they let them go, finding nothing how they might punish them, because of the people: for all I men I glorified God for that which was done.

A wicker basket overflowing with fresh produce is the central focus. It contains two ears of yellow corn, several bright orange carrots, a head of green lettuce, a sliced kiwi showing its green flesh and black seeds, and several dark green avocados. The basket is set on a rustic, weathered wooden surface. The lighting is warm, highlighting the textures of the food and the wood.

1Pe 02:23 Who, when he was reviled,
reviled not again; when he suffered,
he threatened not; but committed [
himself] to him that judgeth
righteously:
