

Joh 12:32 And I, if I be lifted up from the earth, will draw all [men] unto me.

An aerial photograph of a rural landscape. A winding river flows through the center of the frame, surrounded by lush green vegetation. The surrounding fields are a mix of golden-brown and greyish-brown, showing signs of being harvested or plowed. In the foreground, a small white water tower stands on a hill. The overall scene is a vast, open agricultural area.
