solitary Lo, let that night be {solitary}, let no joyful voice come therein. solitary For want and famine [they were] {solitary}; fleeing into the wilderness in former time desolate and waste. solitary God setteth the {solitary} in families: he bringeth out those which are bound with chains: but the rebellious dwell in a dry [land]. solitary They wandered in the wilderness in a {solitary} way; they found no city to dwell in. solitary The wilderness and the {solitary} place shall be glad for them; and the desert shall rejoice, and blossom as the rose. solitary How doth the city sit {solitary}, [that was] full of people! [how] is she become as a widow! she [that was] great among the nations, [and] princess among the provinces, [how] is she become tributary! solitary And in the morning, rising up a great while before day, he went out, and departed into a {solitary} place, and there prayed.
