

Exodus 39:13 And the fourth row, a beryl, an onyx, and a jasper: they were enclosed in ouches of gold in their enclosings.

A close-up photograph of a large, multi-petaled rose with yellow and pink variegated petals, set against a dark background. The rose is the central focus, with its petals showing a gradient from bright yellow in the center to soft pink on the outer edges. The background is dark and out of focus, showing some green leaves and another rose in the upper right corner.
