

An aerial photograph of a rural farm. The landscape is dominated by vibrant green fields, likely corn, with distinct rows. A dirt road or driveway runs vertically through the center-right. In the middle ground, a large, two-story house with a blue roof and white siding is visible, surrounded by trees. To the right of the house, there are several smaller structures, possibly barns or sheds. In the lower-left foreground, a long, white, rectangular structure, possibly a trailer or a small building, is parked. The overall scene is bright and clear, suggesting a sunny day.

into the good ground is he that heareth the word, and understandeth [ it]; which also beareth fruit, and bringeth forth, some an hundredfold, some sixty, some thirty.
