

A close-up photograph of several brown, cracked Easter eggs resting on a bed of vibrant blue flowers. The eggs are arranged in a cluster, with some showing significant cracking and peeling of the shell. The background is dark, making the blue flowers and brown eggs stand out.

Mat 22:37 Jesus said unto him, Thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all thy mind.