

The background of the image is a blurred photograph of a river or stream. The water is in motion, creating a soft, white, and yellowish blur that suggests a fast flow. In the upper portion of the image, there are green leaves and branches, likely from trees or bushes, which are also blurred, adding to the sense of movement and depth. The overall lighting is natural, with some highlights on the water's surface.

Genesis 29:02 And he looked, and behold a well in the field, and, lo, there were three flocks of sheep lying by it; for out of that well they watered the flocks: and a great stone was upon the well's mouth.
