

Genesis 42:18 And Joseph said unto them the third day, This do, and live; for I fear God:

A close-up, vertical shot of a waterfall. The water is white and frothy as it tumbles over dark, wet rocks. The surrounding environment is a dense, dark green forest with various types of foliage, including ferns, visible on the left and right sides of the frame. The lighting is somewhat dim, suggesting a shaded forest setting.
