

Genesis 45:05 Now therefore be not grieved, nor angry with yourselves, that ye sold me hither: for God did send me before you to preserve life.

A close-up photograph of a flower's reproductive parts. The central focus is a green pistil with a black, rounded stigma at the top. To the left and right are reddish-brown stamens with long, thin filaments. The background is a soft, out-of-focus mix of green and white, suggesting the rest of the flower and its surroundings.
