

A close-up photograph of dark purple, almost black, leaves with prominent veins and serrated edges. The leaves are layered, creating a sense of depth. Overlaid on this background is white text in a bold, sans-serif font. The text is centered and reads: "Exodus 14:12 Is not this the word that we did tell thee in Egypt, saying, Let us alone, that we may serve the Egyptians? For it had been better for us to serve the Egyptians, than that we should die in the wilderness."
