

Exodus 29:01 And this is the thing that thou shalt do unto them to hallow them, to minister unto me in the priest's office: Take one young bullock, and two rams without blemish,

A scenic view of a coastline with a paved path leading down to the water. The path is dark and curves through a lush, green, hilly landscape. In the background, the ocean is visible with white waves crashing against dark rocks. The sky is a deep blue with some light clouds. The overall atmosphere is serene and natural.
