

A close-up photograph of green leaves, likely from a grapevine, covered in numerous small, clear water droplets. One prominent leaf in the foreground has a large, irregular hole eaten into it, with a dark, brownish edge. The background is softly blurred, showing more green foliage and a hint of a wooden trellis structure.

1st Chronicles 24:17 The one and twentieth to Jachin, the two and twentieth to Gamul,