

1st Chronicles 27:21 Of the half tribe of Manasseh in Gilead, Iddo
the son of Zechariah: of Benjamin, Jaasiel the son of Abner:

A swampy landscape with green water, dead trees, and some living vegetation. The water is covered in a thick layer of green algae or duckweed. Several dead, skeletal trees stand in the water, their branches reaching out. In the background, there are more trees, some with autumn-colored leaves in shades of orange and yellow. The overall scene is somewhat desolate and overgrown.
