

A scenic waterfall cascading over large, mossy rocks, surrounded by lush greenery and vibrant yellow flowers in the foreground. The water flows from the top right towards the bottom left, creating a series of small pools and rapids. The rocks are dark and wet, with patches of green moss. The background is filled with tall evergreen trees under a clear blue sky. The overall atmosphere is peaceful and natural.

1st Chronicles 27:22 Of Dan, Azareel the son of Jeroham. These were the princes of the tribes of Israel.