

Job 03:13 For now should I have lain still and been quiet, I should have slept: then had I been at rest,

A close-up photograph of several light purple and white bell-shaped flowers with yellow stamens, set against a dark green background. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The lighting is soft, highlighting the delicate texture of the petals.