

Job 29:03 When his candle shined
upon my head, and when by his light I walked through darkness;

A photograph of a rocky cliff face with a small waterfall, serving as a background for the text. The rock is light-colored and has a layered, blocky appearance. The waterfall is small and flows down the center of the cliff. The text is overlaid on the upper portion of the image.