

A close-up photograph of a cluster of pink, bell-shaped flowers, likely from a Salpiglossis species, with several water droplets on their petals. The background is a soft-focus green, suggesting foliage. The text is overlaid in white, bold, serif font.

Job 30:17 My bones are pierced in me in the night season: and my sinews take no rest.