

A photograph of a small waterfall cascading over several tiers of large, reddish-brown and grey rocks. The water is clear and creates white foam as it falls. In the foreground, there are several blades of long, green grass, some of which are slightly out of focus. The background shows more rocks and some green foliage.

Job 33:06 Behold, I am according to thy wish in God's stead: I also am formed out of the clay.
