

Job 38:29 Out of whose womb came the ice? and the hoary frost of heaven, who hath gendered it?

A close-up photograph of a string of white, heart-shaped flowers (likely bleeding hearts) hanging from a green stem against a background of lush green foliage. The flowers are arranged in a line, with some fully open and others as buds. The leaves are large and green, with prominent veins. The overall scene is bright and natural.
