

A photograph of a large field filled with numerous rectangular hay bales. In the foreground, a single large hay bale is prominently displayed, showing its texture and the way it is bound. The field extends into the distance, where more bales are scattered across a grassy area. In the background, there are some buildings, trees, and utility poles under a clear sky. The overall scene is a rural, agricultural setting.

Job 39:20 Canst thou make him afraid as a grasshopper? the glory
of his nostrils is terrible.
