

Psalm 44:26 Arise for our help,
and redeem us for thy mercies'
sake.
