

Psalm 51:02 Wash me thoroughly
from mine iniquity, and cleanse
me from my sin.

A photograph of a winter landscape. In the foreground, a large, flat rock is covered in a thick layer of snow. To the right, a small stream flows over several large, dark rocks. The background shows more snow-covered rocks and some dry, brown grasses. The sky is a pale blue, suggesting a clear day. The overall scene is serene and quiet.
