

A close-up, slightly blurred photograph of a waterfall. The water is white and frothy as it falls over dark, jagged rocks. On the left side, a thick, textured tree trunk is visible, partially covered in moss or lichen. The background is dark and out of focus, suggesting a dense forest. The overall scene is dynamic and natural.

Psalm 59:06 They return at evening: they make a noise like a dog, and go round about the city.
