Psalm 68:09 Thou, O God, didst send a plentiful rain, whereby thou didst confirm thine inheritance, when it was weary.
