

A close-up photograph of a dense field of colorful foliage. The leaves are primarily green, but many have prominent purple or magenta edges and veins, with some yellow streaks. The leaves are layered and overlapping, creating a rich, textured appearance. The lighting is soft, highlighting the various colors and textures of the plants.

Proverbs 12:27 The slothful man roasteth not that which he took in hunting: but the substance of a diligent man is precious.
