

Proverbs 04:19 The way of the wicked is as darkness: they know
not at what they stumble.

A large, weathered rock formation with a prominent overhang, casting shadows on the ground below. The rock is light-colored with some darker patches and is set against a darker, more textured rock wall. The scene is illuminated by natural light, creating strong shadows and highlights.