

Leviticus 25:33 And if a man purchase of the Levites, then the house that was sold, and the city of his possession, shall go out in the year of jubilee: for the houses of the cities of the Levites are their possession among the children of Israel.

A scenic view of a rocky coastline with waves crashing against the shore and a green hillside in the background. The text is overlaid on the image in a large, white, serif font.