

A close-up photograph of a cluster of purple flowers, likely a species of Salvia, with green foliage in the background. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The text is overlaid on the image in a white, serif font.

Ecclesiastics 06:04 For he cometh in with vanity, and departeth in darkness, and his name shall be covered with darkness.