

A close-up photograph of blackberry branches. The branches are covered with clusters of small, round berries. Some berries are bright red, indicating they are ripe, while others are green, indicating they are unripe. The background is a soft-focus green, suggesting a dense thicket of foliage. The lighting is bright, creating highlights on the leaves and berries.

Ecclesiastics 07:04 The heart of the wise is in the house of mourning;
but the heart of fools is in the house of mirth.
