

A close-up photograph of a monarch caterpillar (Danaus plexippus) resting on a vibrant green leaf. The caterpillar is positioned vertically, with its head at the top and its tail at the bottom. Its body is primarily black with a prominent orange-red band across its midsection. The leaf is large and has a distinct vein pattern. The background is softly blurred, showing more green foliage.

Ezekiel 12:06 In their sight shalt thou bear it upon thy shoulders, and carry it forth in the twilight: thou shalt cover thy face, that thou see not the ground: for I have set thee for a sign unto the house of Israel.
