

A scenic photograph of a waterfall cascading over dark, wet rocks into a shallow stream. The water is clear and creates white foam as it falls. In the foreground, there are several blades of green grass, some in focus and some blurred. The background shows more rocks and some greenery. The overall scene is peaceful and natural.

Ezekiel 48:21 And the residue shall be for the prince, on the one side and on the other of the holy oblation, and of the possession of the city, over against the five and twenty thousand of the oblation toward the east border, and westward over against the five and twenty thousand toward the west
