

A photograph of a rocky, volcanic landscape. The foreground and middle ground are filled with dark, jagged, and porous volcanic rocks of various sizes. Some small, dry, yellowish-brown shrubs are scattered among the rocks. The background shows a similar rocky terrain extending towards a clear sky. The overall scene is rugged and desolate.

Numbers 11:31 And there went forth a wind from the LORD, and brought quails from the sea, and let them fall by the camp, as it were a day's journey on this side, and as it were a day's journey on the other side, round about the camp, and as it were two cubits high upon the face of the earth.
