

A close-up photograph of a rose bush. The image is filled with numerous roses in various stages of bloom. The colors range from deep, vibrant reds to soft pinks and light purples. The petals are layered and delicate, showing some signs of being touched or weathered. The background is a lush, dark green of rose leaves, which are serrated and have a glossy texture. The lighting is bright, suggesting a sunny day, which creates highlights on the petals and leaves, and deep shadows in the foliage.

Micah 02:13 The breaker is come up before them: they have broken up, and have passed through the gate, and are gone out by it: and their king shall pass before them, and the LORD on the head of them.
