

A close-up photograph of a corn plant. The image shows several large, vibrant green leaves with prominent veins, some showing signs of being eaten or damaged. In the center, a young ear of corn is visible, still partially covered by its protective husk. The background is a soft-focus field of similar corn plants, suggesting a healthy crop. The lighting is bright and natural, highlighting the textures of the leaves and the developing grain.

Deuteronomy 15:21 And if there be any blemish therein, as if it be lame, or blind, or have any ill blemish, thou shalt not sacrifice it unto the LORD thy God.
