

A close-up photograph of a large, gnarled tree trunk. The bark is dark grey and heavily textured with deep grooves and ridges. Patches of green moss are visible on the lower right side of the trunk. In the background, there are green leaves and some brown, dried leaves hanging from the branches.

Deuteronomy 28:38 Thou shalt carry much seed out into the field, and shalt gather but little in; for the locust shall consume it.
