

A herd of deer is grazing in a lush green field. Two deer are standing in the middle ground, facing away from the camera. In the foreground, several other deer are lying down, resting on the grass. The background is filled with tall green grass and some trees, suggesting a natural, rural setting. The overall scene is peaceful and serene.

Deutronomy 06:18 And thou shalt do that which is right and good in the sight of the LORD: that it may be well with thee, and that thou mayest go in and possess the good land which the LORD sware unto thy fathers,
