

A close-up photograph of a brown, textured seed or insect on a bed of green grass. The seed is positioned in the center of the frame, partially obscured by the blades of grass. The grass is vibrant green and appears to be a mix of different varieties, with some blades showing signs of being eaten or damaged. The background is a soft-focus field of similar grass, creating a sense of depth. The overall lighting is bright and natural, highlighting the textures of both the seed and the grass.

Luke 13:19 It is like a grain of mustard seed, which a man took, and cast into his garden; and it grew, and waxed a great tree; and the fowls of the air lodged in the branches of it.
