

Luke 06:41 And why beholdest thou the mote that is in thy brother's eye, but perceivest not the beam that is in thine own eye?

A close-up photograph of a vibrant purple flower, likely a petunia, with green leaves and stems. The flower is the central focus, with its petals showing some texture and a small dark spot near the center. The background is a soft-focus green, suggesting a garden or field setting. The text is overlaid on the upper portion of the image in a white, bold, sans-serif font.
