

Luke 08:53 And they laughed him
to scorn, knowing that she was dead.

A close-up photograph of a dense field of yellow pansies. The flowers are in various stages of bloom, with some fully open and others as buds. The centers of the flowers are dark, almost black, with prominent stamens. The background is a soft, out-of-focus blur of more yellow flowers, creating a sense of depth. The lighting is bright and natural, highlighting the vibrant yellow of the petals.
