

John 04:29 Come, see a man, which told me all things that ever I did: is not this the Christ?

A photograph of a stone wall on the left and a garden bed on the right. The wall is made of large, rectangular, reddish-brown stones. The garden bed contains various rocks, including large, dark, angular ones and smaller, smooth, light-colored pebbles. There are some green plants, including a tall, thin grass-like plant, growing in the garden bed. The background is a plain, light-colored wall.
