

John 04:30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.

A close-up photograph of a field of golden wheat stalks, with the text 'John 04:30 Then they went out of the city, and came unto him.' overlaid in white. The wheat is ripe and has a warm, golden-brown hue. The stalks are densely packed and show some movement, suggesting a breeze. The background is a soft-focus field of similar wheat.
