

A close-up photograph of a cedar tree branch. In the foreground, there are several vibrant red, five-lobed leaves, likely from a different plant, partially obscuring the cedar needles. The background is filled with dense, green cedar needles, creating a textured and layered appearance. The lighting is bright, suggesting a sunny day, and the overall scene is a mix of autumnal reds and evergreen greens.

you, He that believeth on me hath everlasting life.
