

A scenic view of a winding road through a mountain valley. The road is paved and curves to the left. The surrounding landscape features rolling hills and mountains, some with sparse vegetation and others with denser green trees. The sky is clear and blue. The text is overlaid in white, serif font, centered on the image.

2nd Corinthians 04:15 For all things are for your sakes, that the abundant grace might through the thanksgiving of many redound to the glory of God.