

A sunset over a body of water with buildings in the distance. The sun is low on the horizon, casting a warm glow over the scene. The water in the foreground is dark and reflects the light from the sky. The buildings in the distance are silhouetted against the bright sky.

2nd Corinthians 05:18 And all things are of God, who hath reconciled us to himself by Jesus Christ, and hath given to us the ministry of reconciliation;