

A wooden planter box filled with vibrant pink flowers and green foliage. The planter is made of light-colored wood with a reddish-brown stain on the edges. The flowers are small, five-petaled, and bright pink, growing on green stems with narrow leaves. The background is a blurred outdoor setting with a wooden structure and a light-colored wall.

2nd Corinthians 10:07 Do ye look on things after the outward appearance? If any man trust to himself that he is Christ's, let him of himself think this again, that, as he is Christ's, even so are we Christ's.
