

A close-up photograph of a pink rose, showing the intricate layers of its petals. The petals are a vibrant pink color, with some showing signs of aging or damage, such as small brown spots and slight discoloration at the edges. The center of the rose is dark, revealing the stamens and pistil. The background is dark and out of focus, making the rose the central focus of the image. Overlaid on the upper portion of the rose is white text in a serif font, which reads: "1st Peter 03:17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing."

1st Peter 03:17 For it is better, if the will of God be so, that ye suffer for well doing, than for evil doing.
