

A close-up photograph of a tree branch, likely a sycamore, with several leaves in various stages of autumn. Some leaves are bright green, while others are turning yellow and some show signs of being eaten. Small, green, spiky seed pods are visible on the branch. The background is a soft-focus green, suggesting a dense canopy of leaves.

Judges 21:25 In those days there was no king in Israel: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.
