

Revelation 17:12 And the ten horns which thou sawest are ten kings, which have received no kingdom as yet; but receive power as kings one hour with the beast.

A high-altitude mountain landscape with snow-covered peaks and a group of people on a ridge. The scene is dominated by dark, jagged rock formations partially covered in snow. In the foreground, a wide, snow-covered ridge slopes down towards the right. A small group of people is visible on the ridge, appearing to be climbing or standing. The background shows more snow-capped mountain ranges under a clear blue sky. The overall atmosphere is cold and majestic.
